Nancy has arrived at the hotel and is speaking to the front desk clerk.

Clerk: Good morning, how can I help you?

Nancy: Yes, I'd like to check in. The reservation is under the name Nancy Andresen.

Clerk: I'm afraid check-in doesn't begin until 2 p.m., ma'am.

Nancy: I requested an early check-in when I made my reservation, though.

Clerk: I'm afraid our hotel can only accept requests, and in the end, it's based on availability.

Nancy: Oh, that's unfortunate. I've been up for over 24 hours and I really need to rest before a business meeting later today.

Clerk: We had no vacancies last night, so I really can't say whether your room will be ready sooner than the regular check-in time.

Nancy: I understand. Would I be able to get access to the hotel pool before check-in?

Clerk: Sure. You can purchase a pass for 25 dollars, but it won't open for another two hours, at 10 a.m.

Nancy: I see. I'll do that. I can get some breakfast at the restaurant next door and then come back.

Clerk: Actually, the voucher includes a 15-percent coupon at any hotel restaurant, so you could use it at any of our three restaurants.

Nancy: Oh, thank you for letting me know. That sounds like a good option. I'll do that.

Clerk: Alright, then. Here's your voucher. Just show it at any restaurant to receive the discount, and then to the attendant when you enter the pool area. I highly recommend the third floor Café Mondo, which has an excellent coffee bar as well as a good selection of breads and pastries.

Nancy: Are there any other places open for breakfast?

Clerk: Yes, Mariner's Bay is on the second floor and has an all-you-can-eat buffet. The Captain's Table is one floor above that and is also serving breakfast, although you can only order from the menu there.

Nancy: Thank you. And where's the pool?

Clerk: Mariner's Bay is next to it. Some of the tables even have great views of it.

Nancy: Excellent. Thank you for your help. Also, I'd like to leave these bags here in the meantime.

Clerk: Of course. Just place them at the end of the reception desk and you can pick them up after checking in. Just fill in these tags. Is there anything else I can help you with?

Nancy: I think that'll do it. Thank you so much.

“Game Night”

When I studied abroad in the US, I was surprised by all the board games my host family owned. We used to have “game nights” at least once a week! Let’s play some of the games I enjoyed!

Here are the ones we’ll try, but don’t worry if you’ve never heard of them!

Clue<sup>TM</sup>

The game takes about an hour and requires three to six players to take on various roles and then investigate a murder by gathering evidence from other players. The winner is the player who, through the process of elimination, can figure out which three cards are hidden within the secret envelope that holds the answers to the murder, specifically who killed who with what weapon.

Trivial Pursuit<sup>TM</sup>

Each player or team (a minimum of three, a maximum of six) gets a circular playing piece with six pie-shaped holes and makes their way around the board. The goal of the game is to collect a pie piece in each color corresponding to different question categories like history, arts and entertainment among others. Test your trivia knowledge!

Scattergories<sup>TM</sup>

This is a fun list-making game that involves fast thinking. Three or more players must come up with creative answers to different categories, things like movies, famous politicians, or types of sandwiches, in just sixty seconds. At the start of each round, you roll a 20-sided letter die which decides the letter that every answer must begin with. Players compare their answers and if the same answer appears on more than one list, it gets crossed off, but a player receives one point for each unique word. The winner is the one with the most points!

Meet at the 6th floor lounge in Building C at 6 p.m. this Saturday, March 25, 2023.
Bring something to drink and a snack to share!

RE: Game Night

Hi Corey,

I just saw the event flier you posted around campus. It looks like a great event. I'm really excited to take part in this as I love trying out new games. I've only heard of Trivial Pursuit, so the others will be a totally new experience for me.

I just saw another flier posted by the International Club and it seems they are also having an event that evening. It's their annual International Food Festival and it's been a popular event with students. I have a feeling a lot of our members will be attending it, so was thinking we could hold our event on another weekend perhaps. Next weekend is a three-day one due to the Friday holiday, so a lot of people might be off campus, but the one after that would work. Let me know what you think. It'd be a shame if few people came to our event as it could become a <sup>*1</sup>recurring event in the future.

Hope to hear from you soon.

James

- ② Do I still get a point even if a word is misspelled?
- ③ How do I know which letter the words should begin with?
- ④ How much time do I have to make my list?

問3 ( 18 )

People who take part in "Game Night" should...

- ① buy a game to play.
- ② bring something to eat.
- ③ contact the organizer as soon as possible.
- ④ have knowledge about board games.

問4 ( 19 )

What is the purpose of the email?

- ① To encourage members to attend “Game Night.”
- ② To give feedback on the games.
- ③ To invite other campus clubs to the event.
